

Teams & Leadership in Music & Management

Friday, September 27, 2019, 12-1pm
ZNI 112 (Herklotz Seminar Room)

Dr. Stephanie Oestreich, MPA
Executive Vice President at Evotec

Together with a live quartet, Dr. Oestreich will demonstrate the analogies of teams and leadership in music and management.

This program includes:

- a musical introduction & summary
- an opportunity for participants to conduct the orchestra and receive feedback on their leadership style

Stephanie Oestreich is Executive Vice President at Evotec and leads the North American BRIDGEs Partnerships, negotiating umbrella agreements with universities and financing partners, selecting novel research projects and starting companies or licensing successful opportunities to pharma or biotech after achieving proof of concept: <https://www.evotec.com/en/innovate/bridges>. Previously, she was International Business Leader Avastin Breast, Cervical and Ovarian Cancer for F. Roche Hoffmann-La Roche Ltd., and held local, regional and global marketing roles with increasing responsibilities in different geographies and therapeutic areas at Novartis. Before working in Strategic Alliances at Novartis, she conducted the research for her PhD in biochemistry at Harvard Medical School and obtained an MPA from the Harvard Kennedy School.

As a semi-professional violinist, she has performed with members of the Berlin, Vienna, and Boston Philharmonic Orchestra in Carnegie Hall and demonstrates the analogies of teams and leadership in music and management in presentations with the Kendall Square Orchestra, an orchestra of scientists that she co-founded: www.kendallsquareorchestra.org.

Register: https://usc.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_0AofgNtec1EtHjn

Lunch will be included for registered attendees.

Keck School of Medicine of USC

MESH Academy

Medicine, Engineering, Science and Humanities